

Thanksgiving 2020 Lew memorial and family outreach project.

#2 26 Nov 2020 Es

Es at age 8 and 77. Both of these have been on my website for 10 years. I won't reminisce on the changing of relationships among we sibs, but looking at these a for a couple of days, I realized that I was seeing things in their faces that I have been missing. Sometimes we don't really look. I never noticed back in our youth how cute she was, nor at our current age, how mature and friendly she looked. It puts added perspective on all those reminisces. It shows that we never really see until we look again, look past what we know, deeper. There is always more to know, to learn.
